SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL

Presents . . .

The 1962 ILIAD

SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL
Forsyth County
Clemmons, North Carolina
Volume VI

SUSAN REYNOLDS ..... Editor-in-Chief
LAURA HAMPTON, LINDA JONES ..... Associate Editors
PHYLLIS WOOSLEY ..... Business Manager
MISS MAXINE SWARINGEN ..... Advisor

Our school . . .

This edition of the ILIAD is meant to be used by you, the students of our school, as a history book, as a source of reference, and most of all, as a vivid reminder of your days at Southwest. The staff has tried hard to depict the life and spirit of our school with pictures and words. It is our hope that you will leaf through these pages often, each time remembering another small moment which would otherwise be forgotten.

To Our Parents . . .

For your concern and willingness to help,

For your wisdom and understanding,

For your guidance through every difficulty,

For each sacrifice you've made,

For your true Christian faith,

For your steadfast love and unswerving belief in us,

We, the Senior Class, would like to say sincerely and earnestly, THANK YOU.

Dedication

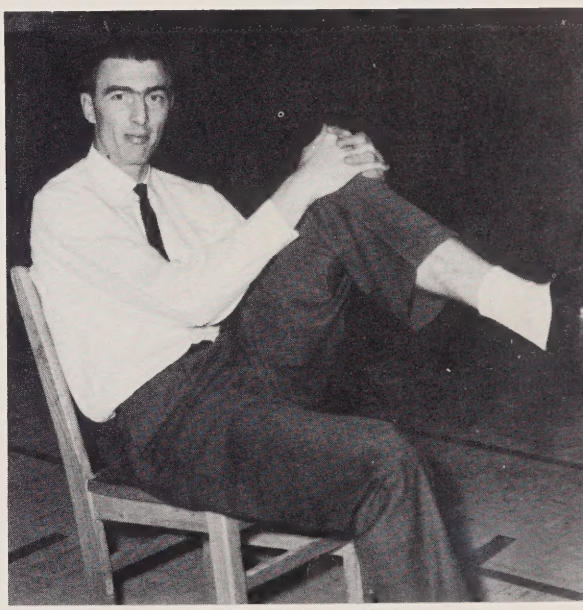
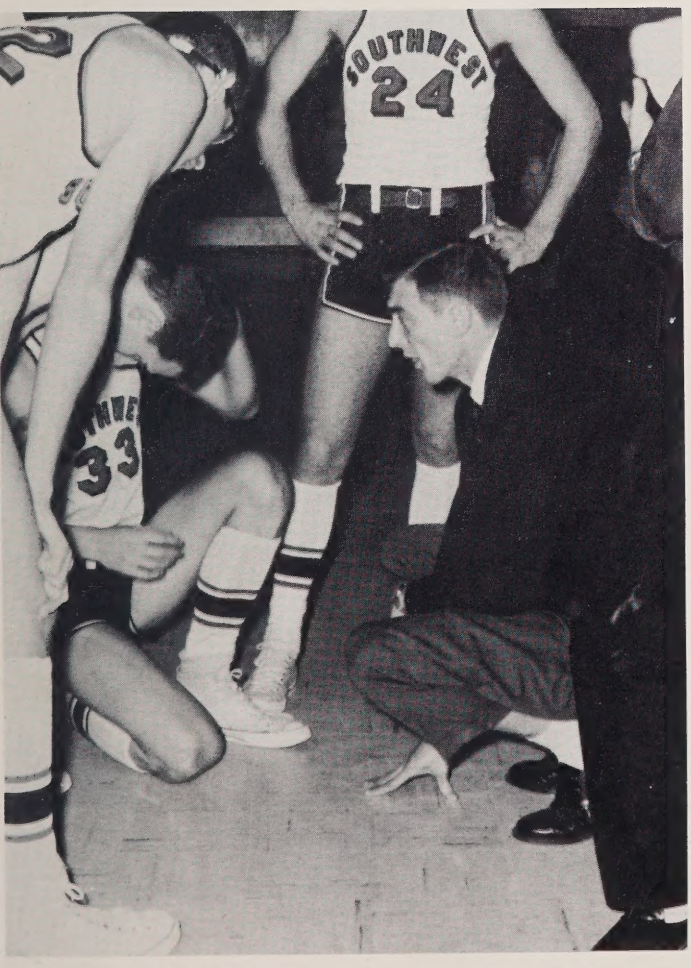
With deep appreciation for your friendly, helpful attitude; for your wit and infectious humor; for performing the many duties that go unrewarded; for your patient, untiring efforts in trying to coach us; and most of all, for your ever-present interest in us as students; we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1962 ILIAD to you, MR. JAMES MAST.



Time out...relaxation



...on the job

Routine . . . same old grind . . . but yet . . .

Savory (?) odors from the lab...

Now it's this way, fellows...

Sing along with...

Ever try to kick a ping-pong ball?

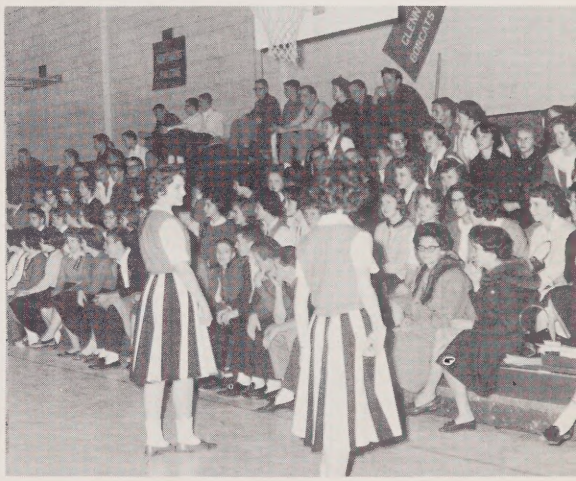
Projects on display...

Assembly—a welcome break...

Morning welcoming committee...

Now let's yell the other sign down!

Chess, anyone?

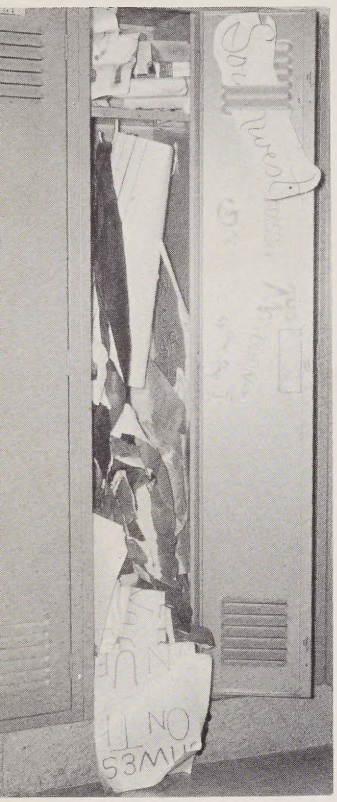


hours of fun

Keep your seats, please!

The long wait...

Added to . . . service . . . participation . . .



Whose "locker" could this be?

Budding young artists...

Publicity...publicity...publicity...

14 cokes, 10 bags of popcorn, 8 Mounds...

and fraternization

Is F.H.A. really worth it?

"Up to Your Ears" in practice...

General supply headquarters...

Annual sales climbing...

Big plans for the pep rally....

Highlights of Homecoming...

Plus footlights . . . enthusiasm . . . excitement

Fourth down and one to go...

All the way, big team...

"But my complexes..."

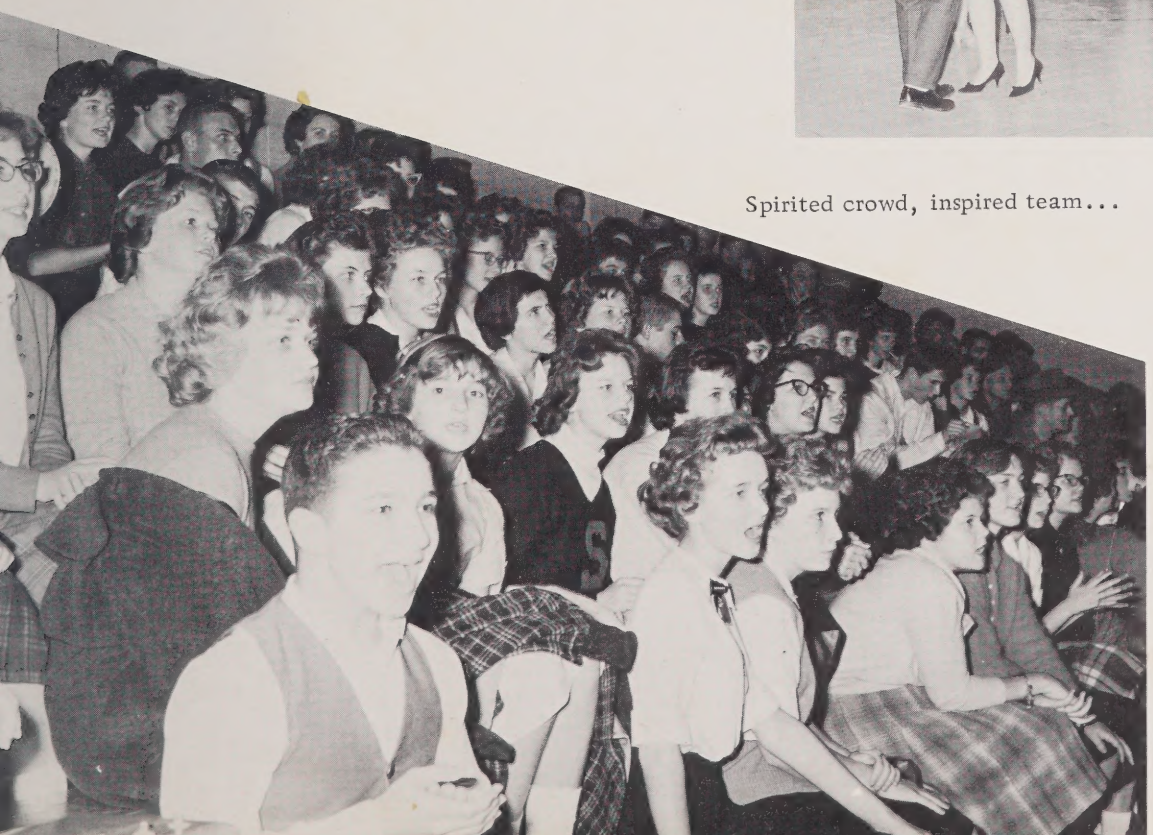
Sorry, no twisting tonight!

Blowin' out the blues...

. . . Southwest

OOPS!

Valentine dance—the gym transformed...



Spirited crowd, inspired team...

Principal's Message

As you, the Class of 1962, leave Southwest High School, you carry our best wishes for a successful and productive life. We trust that your development in the past four years will be of great value to you in your future endeavors.

We wish to thank you for your efforts in behalf of your school and congratulate you on the successful completion of another step in your education.

H.E. Simpson, Principal

FACULTY AND STAFF

Chalk dust...erasers...red pencils...young minds to be developed... grades to be averaged...understanding and encouragement to offer...
ever-present helping hands...our faculty.

Cafeteria Personnel

Around twelve o'clock, five days a week, the cafeteria staff does an excellent job of feeding our hungry students. They are Mrs. Edna Binkley, Mrs. Sadie Henning, Mrs. Esterline Jones, Mrs. Hattie Ledford, Mrs. Lois Dorsett, Mrs. Mary Norman, Mrs. Dorothy Ketner, Mrs. Nelle Harper, Mrs. Jettie Elliot, Mrs. Vivian Evans.

Service Staff

Few of us realize the time and effort the service staff exerts so that we might be proud of our school. They work diligently every day to keep Southwest neat and in tip-top working order. They are Mildred Hawkins, Thomasina Hawkins, and Scott Anthony.

SENIORS

Class rings...proud feelings of superiority...college boards...working together...Macbeth...issuing of caps and gowns...torn between the security of the past and the promise of the future...the Senior Class.

Senior Class History

It was the fall of 1958 and the beginning of a new experience for all who were taking their first steps into the realm of high school.

That first year was exciting. Carolyn Craver, a representative of our class, was crowned Homecoming Queen and later that year, Valentine Sweetheart. As Freshmen, we felt this was a great honor!

When the 1959-60 school year approached, we realized that, though still underclassmen, we were at least one step higher to our final goal. We were glad once again to be with the now old friends that we had made the preceding year. Southwest had become familiar to us, and many of our classmates were active participants in the extracurricular activities. This year for the first time Southwest had an organized Sophomore class. Our officers were as follows: President, Wayne Burkette; Vice-Presidents, Frankie Vaught, Roger Jones, Bob Brewer, Mike Hauser, Snookey Everhart, and Luena Garrison; Secretary, Jane Crater; Treasurer, Karen Gunderson.

Then we were Juniors! Unbelievingly we were upperclassmen, but along with this title there were many responsibilities. Our class was led by Snookey Everhart, President; Frances Peters, Frankie Vaught, Larry Dull, Jane Martin, and Ronnie Harper, Vice-Presidents; Karen Gunderson, Secretary; and Jane Crater, Treasurer. With able leaders and the help of our sponsors, Mrs. Butner, Mr. Robinson, Miss Snow, Mrs. Lytton, and Mrs. Robinson, we completed our class project of selling Southwest jackets and scarves. Using the money made from this project, we successfully carried out our plans for the Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Moose Lodge. The theme for the dance was "April in Paris."

Four outstanding honors were bestowed to members of our class. Judy Lutz was elected Vice-President of the student body. Arthur Holshouser was named to the All-Conference team in football. Margaret Pilcher was named to the All-Conference basketball team. We were also pleased that Jane Crater won the D.A.R. award, which is based on citizenship and character. Working with the Senior class during graduation exercises were these fourteen Junior Marshals: Carolyn Craver and Ronnie Harper, Co-Chiefs; Judy Lutz, Bobby Wall, Donna Davis, Mike Hauser, Gaynelle Martin, Richard Harper, Deanna Sprinkle, Jerry Mock, Frankie Vaught, Kermit Essex, Jane Crater, and Snookey Everhart.

At long last we reached our Senior year. With the help of our officers, Ronnie Harper, President; Frankie Vaught, Elizabeth Wolfe, Larry Dull, Bobby Wall, Vice-Presidents; Phyllis Woosley, Secretary; Luena Garrison, Treasurer; and our sponsors, Miss Cook, Miss Swaringen, Mrs. B. Green, Mrs. Russell, and Miss Farthing, we made the necessary plans for our Senior activities. Class day officers were as follows: Historians, Luena Garrison and Richard Harper; Prophets, Judy Jones and Robert Reed; Testators, Maryellen Robertson and Bob Brewer; Poet, Louise Dunn; Songwriters, Katherine Bailey and Eddie Flowers. We chose the carnation as our class flower and titian red and ivory as our class colors.

The other prominent offices held by our classmates were Editor-in-Chief of the ILIAD, Susan Reynolds; Editor of the ODYSSEY, Judy Jones; President of the student body, Snookey Everhart; Chief cheerleader, Jane Crater; Chief majorette, Gaynelle Martin. In addition, we were quite proud that Linda Smith was elected Homecoming Queen.

In December of our Senior year, we presented the traditional Christmas program under the direction of Betty Hall. As the last pages were turned, they were filled with unforgettable events and fond memories of the class picnic, baccalaureate sermon, and the final goal, graduation. The past experiences and opportunities will remain a part of our lives, and we will ever be grateful to those who have helped and guided us on our way.

Last Will And Testament

We, the 1962 graduating class of Southwest High School, being of tired but sound minds, do hereby declare this document to be our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I. To Mr. Simpson, who will breathe a sigh of joy after we graduate, we leave our heart-felt thanks for his ever-present helping hand.

Section II. To our faculty, who have gained tons of white hair during the past four years, we leave our sincere appreciation for the knowledge you tried desperately to cram into us.

Section III. To our loving parents, whose sacrifices have made us successful, we leave our thanks and appreciation a thousand times over.

Section IV. To the members of the class of '63 we leave our Senior privileges, which we didn't get, and a car load of privileged character buttons.

Section V. To the rising Juniors we leave a thousand boxes of energy and nerve pills.

Section VI. To the rising Sophomores we leave our ability to endure the new Freshmen.

Section VII. To the rising Freshmen, poor kids, we leave our unused supply of midnight oil.

ARTICLE II

KATHERINE BAILEY and JANET LOAFMAN leave their undying love for school to Ralph Johnson and Tommy Shore. Boys, keep up the good work!

BOB BREWER would like to leave his usual quiet classroom conduct and high college board score to Calvin Dull and Don Collins.

KAREN KING, BETTY BALL, BONNIE SPANN, NELLIE CLAYTON, and PEARL ROTHROCK leave their ability to outrun cops on the expressway to Carol Stilley and Judy Pleasants. Remember, girls, this is done on foot!

STEVE BLAKLEY, STUART CLINARD, and LONNIE MAINES bestow their excessive speed and ability to hunt rabbits on Tommy Craver.

GAYNELLE "Ipana smile" MARTIN leaves her treasured ping-pong paddles to Franklin Willard. Keep 'em going, Frank.

TOM BUCK and THEON VANCE, who are Southwest's top musicians, leave their talent to Jim and Joe Richardson. Boys, keep those violins in shape!

SUSAN REYNOLDS, that girl who says little but thinks a lot, wills to Patsy Hicks, Barbara Lewis, and Cheryl Nifong her job as ILIAD Editor. Girls, you'll have to talk to Susan about this!

IKE CAMPBELL, who is Miss Swaringen's top student, leaves to H.V. Milner his ability to receive help on English tests! You might need lessons, H.V.

MARYELLEN ROBERTSON leaves her locker, number 375, a magic marker, a false tooth, and a flat tire to Hazel Gordon. Hazel, it's hopeless!

JOHNNY DISHER, LARRY SOWERS, JERRY SCOTT, WAYNE WILHELM and JOHNNY HUFFMAN, our number-one safety experts, leave their ability to "drive" a bus to Odell Groce and Charles Cherry.

KAREN "Babyface" GUNDERSON leaves her gunslinger outfit and eye shadow to Barbara Joyner. Have fun, Barbara!

PHILLIP DUGGINS leaves to Lanier Woosley his wild red hair. Grow sideburns, buy a guitar, and you'll have it made, Lanier.

PHYLLIS WOOSLEY would like to leave her "Arthur Murray Twist Book" to Leona Binkley in hopes she'll take good care of it.

JERRY HESTER, JERRY MOCK, and LARRY "Pierre" DULL leave their perfect French accents to James McMordie and Roger Warner.

CAROL CROUCH leaves an ace bandage, a bottle of rubbing alcohol, and Miss Cook's whistle to Sue Lanier. Easy on that alcohol!

JUDY LUTZ leaves her job as F.H.A. president to Glenn Tuttle, Bill Hyland, John Winfrey, and Gary Rothrock. Hope you can handle it, boys!

GWYN RIDDLE, BOB VOGLER, and CHUCK SHEEK leave their love for those boys in blue (cops) to James Branham, Roger Hockaday, Jon Lowder, and Charles Wooten.

MARIAN LASHMIT leaves her 4-H uniform to Pat Landreth. Keep those tobacco plants growing, Pat!

ROBERT "Rosey" REED, BOBBY "Bonecrusher" WOOD, and LEON "Alphonse" WILLIAMSON leave their popular publication "How to Be a Successful Wrestler and All 'Round Athlete" to Charles Cornatzer. Easy, Charles, don't burst a blood vessel!

LINDA BOGER, JANIE HIGGINS, and PATSY JONES leave their flagpole-sitting championship to Janet Hunter, Kay Maynard, and Rita Craver. Careful, those thunderstorms are murder!

ALLEN FRENCH, DONALD JONES, DONNIE JONES, FRED KIMMER, and BOBBY WALL leave their courteous, quiet, thoughtful manner to Eddie Scharff, Ben Miller, Dewey Kiger, and Bobby Poplin. Think you can use it, boys?

DIANE WINDSOR and CAROL SWEAT, those big girls around school, leave their share of Metrecal and Co. plus a pair of scales to Joan Robertson, Jane Lineback, and Judy Shore. Remember those exercises too, girls!

SNOOKEY EVERHART and RICHARD HARPER leave a cracked slide rule, two bent protractors, and a pack of paper to Larry Robertson and Mike Windsor. "Rots 'a ruck," fellows!

EMILY KETNER and SARAH SAIN, those two speed demons, leave their hot '55 Chevies to Betty Brewer, Bonnie Howard, and Betty Joyce Newsom.

MIKE HAUSER wills a cracked football helmet, two left shoes, a bloody nose, and a cast for a right hand to Bucky Martin and Steve Sloan.

FRANKIE VAUGHT and VICKY CONRAD, those two blondes, leave their famous motto, "Does she or doesn't she—only her hairdresser knows," to Joan Bodsford and Judy Kendrick. Easy on that stuff, girls!

GRANT GREENE leaves a pair of boxing gloves and a handbook on judo to Jimmy Burke. Free lessons go along with that book, Jimmy!

LINDA "Cheesecake" SMITH leaves her appetite for pork 'n beans and watermelon to Phyllis Tilley. Think you'll need a stomach pump, Phyllis?

DONNA DAVIS leaves her thoughts of possible wedding bells in the future to Sandy Hunter and Phoebe Lineback. Oh, you lucky girls!

JAKE FOSTER bestows upon Wayne Livengood a brace for a broken jaw and a Donald Duck drinking straw.

JANE MARTIN leaves her contact lenses to Lynn Adcock and Gerry Reavis. Sorry, girls, only one apiece.

CAROLYN CRAVER leaves her job as chewing gum machine for the girls basketball team to Carol Spillman. Use anything but rubber, Carol!

GRAY GRIFFITH, FRANK LONG, BILL NELSON, and RUSTY TALBERT, our own cow punchers, leave a cowboy hat, a pair of boots, and a sway-back nag to Stanley Mock and Delmer Taylor.

DARLA WALKER leaves her familiar chant, "rebound, boys," to Laura Hampton.

RONNIE HARPER and JERRY TUCKER leave their qualifying speed on Harper Road, a wrestling jersey, and their athlete's feet to Ronny Matthews. Hope your "racing slicks" are in good shape, Ronny!

BONNIE BOONE and EMILY WILLIAMS will to Dennis Hedrick their coveted spot on the cheering squad. Think you can handle it, Dennis?

BUD "Mama Bear" HAUSER and ARTHUR HOLSHOUSER, those little boys on the football team, leave two extra-small uniforms to Leonard Hayes and Burton Boner. We can only hope for the best!

SHARON PFAFF and DEANNA SPRINKLE leave to Judy Easter and Marty Collette their long eye lashes.

ANNE BOYD, MAMIE KIMEL, MARGARET HEWITT, RICHARD WATKINS and LARRY TOLBERT will their uncontrollable giggles to Ann Green and Paul Wagoner. Lay off the laughing gas, kids!

JIMMY ROCHESTER leaves his ability to do the physics problems even the teacher can't do to Bill Todd. You may need a slide rule or an IBM machine, Bill.

JERRY LOAFMAN and ROBERT MILLER leave their ability to pass driver's training to Ronnie Reavis.

PEGGY SULLIVAN, BETTY HALL, and SUE MEADOWS bestow upon Frankie Butcher and Sandra Beauchamp their spot at a certain local "hangout." Watch out for those parking tickets, girls!

MAC "Fearless Fred" WEATHERMAN leaves his love for riding steers in freezing weather to Raeford Mitchell. Careful on the expressway, Raeford!

ROGER JONES, DENNIS WHITE, and KERMIT ESSEX, our future engineers, would like to leave their drafting talent and ability to draw scale model pin-ups to Don Wheeling. You won't need a ruler, Don!

MARY DENNIS, TOBY ANGEL, PAT BRYANT, and JANE VOSS leave their naturally quiet, timid, bashful manner to Shirley Parker, Nancy Beroth, and Mary Lois Darnell. Need anything be said?

ARCHIE ROTHROCK, JERRY MAYES, GEORGE NIFONG, and JOHN SHOAF, the D.E. boys, will their ability to leave school at lunch to play Old Maids to Wayne Peoples and Eugene Spillman.

MARGARET PILCHER and JACKIE McKNIGHT leave their much used basketball uniforms to Martha Hardin and Kay Howerton respectively. Wear them with dignity, girls!

LOUISE McBRIDE, JUDY CONRAD, NORA JEAN HAYES, and JANET HARPER bestow upon Jimmy Hunter their love for Senior Social Studies and, of course, Mr. Denton.

BARBARA ANGEL leaves her wings and halo to Sharon Wells. You don't need them too much, Sharon!

ROBERT HEPLER leaves his ability to secretly date older women to Harold White and Gilbert Mullis. Watch it, boys, you're playing with T.N.T.

Chief cheerleader, JANE CRATER, leaves her job to Miriam Brewer.

HILDA CLEARY, FRANCES TUTTLE, LYNN BAILEY, PHYLLIS GRIFFITH, and ELIZABETH WOLFE bestow their enormous height on Paul Huff and Joyce Shields. Put it to good use on that basketball court, kids!

BRENDA ROTHROCK, FRANCES ELLIS, DEAMIE GRIFFITH, and LINDA WATSON will to Linda Jones their ability to get sparklers.

EDDIE FLOWERS leaves his slow driving speed, his cool Chevy, and his "Little Black Book" to Andy Sharpe.

LESLIE STONE and ROBERT WISHON would like to leave their Don Juan approach to Larry Hicks and Wayne Davis. All girls beware!

LUENA GARRISON leaves to Brenda Barney, Clydene Sprinkle, and Billie Gaye Martin her love for jazz and the "Rat."

DIANN BECKNER, RUBY DAVIS, SYLVIA ARMSTRONG, CAROLYN LINEBERRY, and DAPHANE WALL leave their ability to handle a paying job to Julia Miller and Angeline Giglio. Watch the income tax!

CARROLL ST. PIERRE and JUDY JONES leave to Dale Stelter their "foreign" accents. You may need a translator, Dale.

SANDRA WINTERS, ELAINE BAITY, SHIRLEY MYERS, and LOUISE DUNN will their long sought-after driver's license to Brenda Howard and Pat Milhous. Old ladies and little children, beware!

CHARLES DUNN leaves his high squeaky voice to Johnny Roop. Just keep practicing, Johnny.

MARY MARTIN leaves her role in Peter Pan to Harold Elmore. Watch those three-point landings, Harold!

CAROL HOOTS, NANCY SEALY, and SHEILA FORD will to Brenda Ketner and Judy Cox their "crazy" walk. Try not tying your shoelaces together next time, girls.

HENRY SMITH leaves his love for Mr. Robinson to Rodney Smith. Try biting your tongue and counting to ten, Rodney!

HAROLD SHORE would like to bestow upon Bobby Collins his three months' supply of toothpicks and Bryllcream. Remember, a little dab 'll do 'ya!

JEANNIE SHAW leaves her looks to Tink Schaffer. Tink, you'd better let your hair grow out!

Class Prophecy

The year is 1972. The U.S.S. Trojan is leaving Pier 12 in New York, setting course for Newfoundland. A group of people are sitting by the pool on the main deck talking over old times. Why, it is JACKIE McKNIGHT, JANIE HIGGINS, and BARBARA ANGEL! They start out on a turn 'bout deck and bump into GRAY GRIFFITH and RUSTY TALBERT. In the dining room they meet LEON WILLIAMSON, DONNIE JONES, and LESLIE STONE. During a delightful sea dinner this group discovers that they have all just begun a trip around the world.

HILDA CLEARY and SYLVIA ARMSTRONG are co-owners in a thriving fish cannery in St. John's, Newfoundland. The group spends a day catching fish to give the girls.

Back on the boat, they find that a few more familiar faces have joined them, PEGGY SULLIVAN, TOBY ANGEL, and GWYN RIDDLE. Captain MAC WEATHERMAN assures us that JAKE FOSTER and LARRY TOLBERT won't be allowed to disrupt the lifeboat drills again today.

After arriving in Liverpool, the group jumps on a square-tired bus driven by WAYNE WILHELM and heads for London. They arrive just in time to see "bobby" CHUCK SHEEK arrest JOHN SHOAF for throwing pop bottles at the cricket match refereed by STUART CLINARD. DONNA DAVIS is special attendant to the queen at Buckingham Palace.

As the ship heads for Paris, the group passes ELIZABETH WOLFE as she is swimming the English Channel. In Paris DARLA WALKER and KATHERINE BAILEY run an art gallery. In JUDY CONRAD's modeling school here, SHARON PFAFF and BETTY HALL are the top students. JANET LOAFMAN had just hired private eye LARRY SOWERS to apprehend ARTHUR HOLSHOUSER and JOHNNY HUFFMAN for stealing her novel, How to Evade the Law. At the University of Paris, ROBERT REED is revising the newest French book with the help of JERRY LOAFMAN, who has been teaching French for six years now.

The group takes a plane from Paris International Airport to Madrid, Spain. PHYLLIS GRIFFITH and her capable co-pilot NELLIE CLAYTON see that the trip is comfortable and that there is enough air. At the same time, stewardess RUBY DAVIS is frantically trying to stop JERRY HESTER from jumping into the arms of a French mademoiselle. In Madrid everyone buys a copy of the Daily Gab edited by JUDY JONES and then they head for the bullfight where JERRY SCOTT is the matador for today's event. LINDA BOGER is selling peanuts in the stands.

From Spain they go on through Switzerland on JANET HARPER's cable car service to FRANCES TUTTLE's ski lodge where JANE MARTIN is the head ski instructor. Everyone skies to Germany. DIANE WINDSOR, who is guarding the Berlin Wall, gives everyone a pass and they all cross the border to visit MARIAN LASHMIT's beer and ale brewery. A few samples are loaded, and they catch a plane to sunny Italy.

CHARLES DUNN is paddling SHEILA FORD and NORA JEAN HAYES down the center of Venice in his gondola with the fringe on top. ARCHIE ROTHROCK guides them through Rome. He takes them to the Colosseum to the wrestling match between BUD HAUSER and JERRY TUCKER. The group eats lunch at SUSAN REYNOLDS' Pizza Parlor and then goes to the sports car track. Here HENRY SMITH is tearing down PHILLIP DUGGINS' Mercedes Benz and RICHARD HARPER's Porche under the expert eye of KAREN GUNDERSON. In the bleachers GEORGE NIFONG, JIMMY ROCHESTER, and ROBERT WISHON are eyeing the female spectators. At the Leaning Tower of Pisa, FRED KIMMER won't tell FRANK LONG what he has just dropped off the tower.

BONNIE BOONE's opera company has just opened in the Parthenon in Athens, Greece. Outside the door ROBERT HEPLER is selling tickets to the Southwest Class of '62 reunion.

LUENA GARRISON and JEANNIE SHAW are starring in the Ballet in Moscow. Out on the Russian Launching pads, ROBERT MILLER and BILL NELSON are trying frantically to photograph the latest Soviet missile before it leaves, carrying the moon's first inhabitant, RICHARD WATKINS.

The group heads due south to the Suez Canal. Here LONNIE MAINES owns and operates a snowball factory. Just as they arrive, TOM BUCK is sneaking out the back door and across the desert with a bag of stolen snowballs. Is he going to start his own Arab war? MARGARET PILCHER and her "Arab Globe Trotters" are trotting across the sandy waste. The two tallest members of the team, LYNN BAILEY and EMILY WILLIAMS, are in the lead.

They are greeted in China by a fireworks display from ALLEN FRENCH's gunpowder factory. MARY DENNIS and LOUISE DUNN let everyone sample a fortune cookie from their Chinese bakery. At this point they all are looking a little shaggy so they go next door to PAT BRYANT's barbershop for a trim. Here they find THEON VANCE having his head shaved.

They take BOBBY WOOD's submarine to Japan. Their first sight here is GRANT GREENE selling stilts to Ambassador BOB BREWER so that he can see eye to eye with the Japanese. Why, isn't that BOB VOGLER making fans? He says he is making them for that famous fan dancer, SHIRLEY MYERS.

From that "Punk" MAMIE KIMEL, the group buys a bamboo raft and then floats toward Australia to see SARAH SAIN and her kangeroo farm. In this land of bounce resides the world's ping-pong champion, GAYNELLE MARTIN. SUE MEADOWS, who is still hoping to beat Gaynelle, practices faithfully on her custom-built ping-pong table designed by that spirited craftsman EDDIE FLOWERS.

Everyone piles into EMILY KETNER's canoe and heads for the Fiji Islands. Queen of the islands, DEANNA SPRINKLE, welcomes them. During the welcome, ANNE BOYD and MARGARET HEWITT hastily build several grass huts for the guests to live in during their stay. SANDRA WINTERS is high in the top of a coconut tree busily collecting the dinner.

After a short stay, they take a flying fish to the Hawaiian Islands, recently purchased from the United States government by LINDA WATSON. There go those famous firemen STEVE BLAKLEY and BOBBY WALL off to extinguish the newest volcano created by NANCY SEALEY. As the group heads to see CAROL HOOTS and CAROLYN LINEBERRY do the hula, CAROL CROUCH gives them all a pineapple from her plantation.

JOHNNY DISHER takes the group to the pampas of Argentina. Here BONNIE SPANN is running the world's largest corned beef factory. BETTY BALL, the first lady gaucho, is rounding up the corned beef. JERRY MAYES is just leaving with a posse to search the jungle for KAREN KING, who is out looking for animals for her zoo.

After six days on LOUISE McBRIDE's ice breaker, a floating iceberg is spotted off the coast of Antarctica. MIKE HAUSER and KERMIT ESSEX are sitting on top of it playing a cool game of chess.

Leaving the boys with a year's supply of sun tan lotion, they head for the world's newest capital, Brazilia. Campaign posters greet them. It seems that SNOOKEY EVERHART is running for president of the mafia; but his opponent RONNIE HARPER is pretty confident, and why not, with MARYELLEN ROBERTSON as campaign manager and a henchman like JERRY MOCK spying on Snookey's every move!

As the group tries to get on board a steamship, PHYLLIS WOOSLEY tries to stop them for fear it will sink. Read your physics, girl!

On the way to the Panama Canal, the ships carpenter, JUDY LUTZ, informs them that the ship won't clear the locks, but ELAINE BAITY and DIANN BECKNER, who took over the canal after ousting Castro, assure them that the ship will have plenty of room. The ship sails on through and it's "North to Alaska."

DAPHANE WALL's seal coat business is doing fine, but the same can not be said about DONALD JONES' gold mine. "Thar just ain't no gold in them thar hills."

Kayaking down the Pacific is a real experience for the group. Upon reaching their destination, California, they tour Disneyland guided by FRANCES ELLIS. HAROLD SHORE is starring in the Life Story of Roger Jones with Roger there to aid in the production and FRANKIE VAUGHT to direct it. The movie ought to be a smash with all that talent combined.

CAROLYN CRAVER is on the campus of U.C.L.A. comparing it with all other U.S. colleges. Will she ever make up her mind?

CAROL SWEAT has a thriving donkey farm near the Grand Canyon. LINDA SMITH is her best customer. She leads donkey-back excursions into the canyon. Surely hope she is sure-footed!

In San Antonio VICKY CONRAD is busy at work trying to repair the Alamo, but JANE VOSS keeps the wall shaking with her constant basketball practice.

Bourbon Street has changed a lot since CARROLL ST.PIERRE has opened her secretarial school. On the banks of the Mississippi, MARY MARTIN has a banana split factory.

PEARL ROTHROCK takes the group to the Cape where DEAMIE GRIFFITH is recording data on the behavior of DENNIS WHITE in his space capsule which is headed for Pluto--we hope--but you know Dennis! With BRENDA ROTHROCK as the chief astronaut, the group takes a rocket ship to Southwest. IKE CAMPBELL and LARRY DULL are still there. Larry is writing a revised edition of Thirty Days to a More Powerful Vocabulary. Ike--well, he is just bothering the teachers.

The reunion is a smashing success. But wait, who is missing? JANE CRATER, where are you? Oh, there she is, industriously working with her committee to plan the next get-together. See you in '82!

Class Poem

OUR STEP FORWARD

Curious the day we entered;
Challenged as the years have come;
Our school life has brought much growth,
Surrounded by new friends and more freedom.

Our aims were sure and steadfast,
As we rose each year in class.
Our goals and heads went higher
Till Seniors we were at last!

Our paths all seemed narrow,
Yet the steps were marked clear.
We had cause to doubt and wonder,
But little reason to fear.

Our acquaintances within these walls
Here at Southwest High
Have brought new experiences
As each day grew nigh.

We have within our hands
The chance to bring success,
But we know that this can be done only
Through initiative and willingness.

We now approach the threshold of life
That leaves all but our memories behind.
For now we look upon a great new dawn
That faces all mankind!

Class Song

Our high school days passed swiftly;
Each year brought something new.
Our friendship, study, wisdom,
So many mem'ries too.

Our Freshman steps were falt'ring;
Sure Sophomores we become.
As Juniors we were hopeful;
Now Senior is our name.

So here's to our dear high school
That we will leave too soon.
Always we will remember
Graduation day in June.

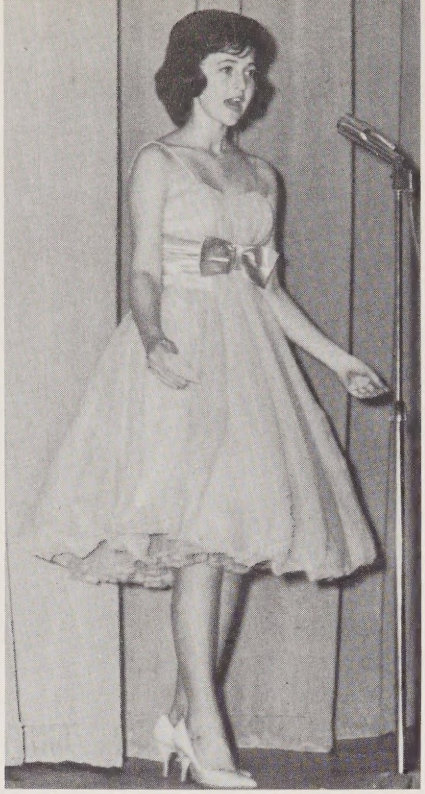
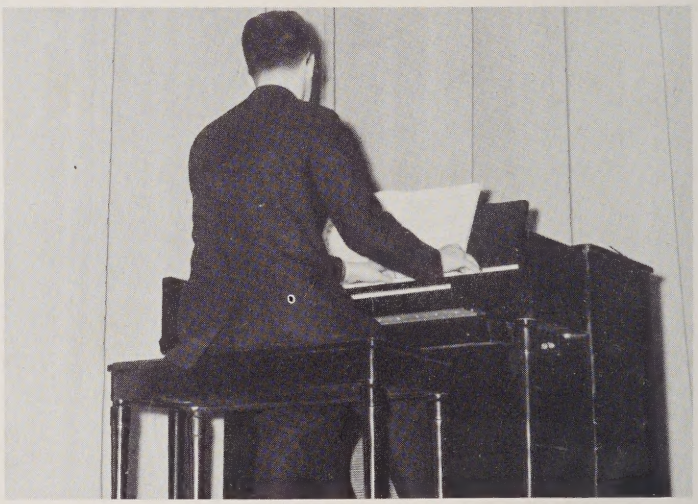
Southwest Follies



Dinah Shore? Brenda Lee?...No, it's Joan Bodsford, first-place winner.

The harmony of the "Cascades" was perfect.



Jerry Jones demonstrates his expert touch on the organ.

The jazz of the "Pagans" set toes a' tapping.

Razz-ma-tazz, 23 skidoo...back to the "Roarin' Twenties" with the Charleston!

The Southwest Follies, held on January 6, was sponsored by the Student Council. The theme and title this year was "Winter Showcase." The program included acts representing almost every type of talent, from pantomime to modern dance. As the showcase unfolded, hours of practice were evident in the perfection of each act. The success of the Follies was measured by the smiles of the audience, a mere reflection of the pleasure and enjoyment of the performers.

"Goin' down to Lonesome Town..."

Is Hazel's hand in her pocket or holding up her pants?

"A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody."

Student Council

Center of school organization—the Student Council. Representing the entire student body, the Council sets the pace for activities of the school. Besides promoting better relationships among students and teachers, it sponsors many projects and social events through various committees.

Assembly programs, devotionals, operation of the school store, and provision for lunchtime recreation are a few of the necessary functions that often go unnoticed. Freshman orientation, Homecoming events, the Christmas dance, post-ballgame dances, the Southwest Follies—all these activities are made possible by the Council's hard work and do their part to make the year enjoyable for everyone.

Newspaper Staff

The ODYSSEY, published monthly, reports to the students of Southwest, through words and pictures, details of past school events and the promise of things to come. The newspaper is many-sided, containing editorials; interviews, sometimes serious and sometimes funny; creative work of students; as well as accurate accounts of school events from September football games to June graduation. The paper provides an opportunity for its staff to develop writing ability and affords much interesting reading for the student body.

Key Club

Key Club International is an outstanding service club for boys. Its purposes include the development of initiative and leadership in high school boys through a program of service.

Members of the Southwest chapter have always been ready to render their services to the school and community whenever called upon. This year Key Clubbers have participated in projects ranging from operation of the concession stand to distribution of Goodwill bags for our city's Goodwill Industries.

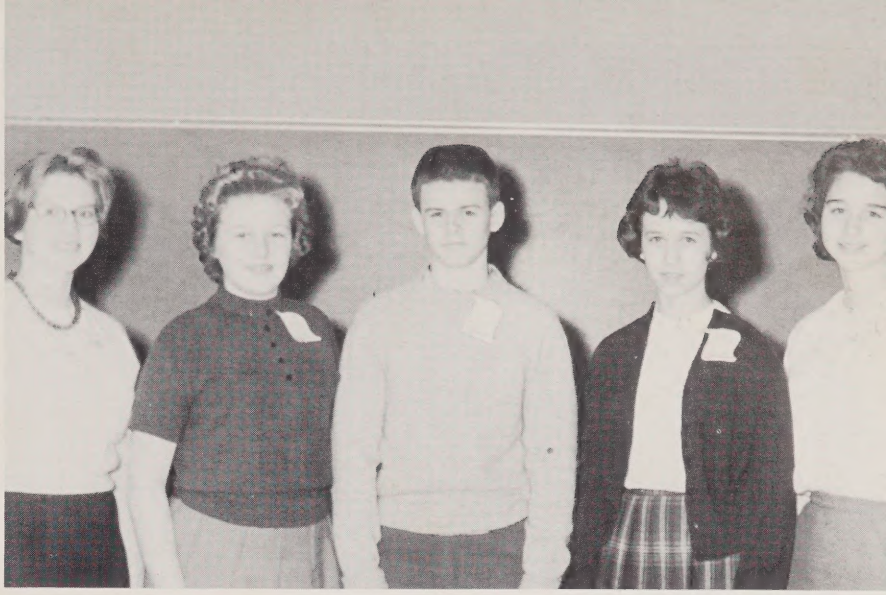
Scholarship, Character, Leadership, Service...Twice each year outstanding Juniors and Seniors meeting these requirements are taken into the National Honor Society by impressive inductions. One of the school's most active organizations, the Society encourages good scholarship in several ways. Honor and improvement rolls are announced quarterly. Students making the yearly honor roll are presented with emblems, and a party is given for those making the honor roll at any time during the year.



At a luncheon, the Society honored these students who made all A's for the first semester: Luena Garrison, Brenda Mann, Dickie Chandler, Janie Burwell, and Carma Lustig.

Quill and Scroll

Y-Teens

A branch of the Y.W.C.A., the Y-Teens hold informal meetings each month which usually include programs suited to the girls' interests followed by socializing and refreshments. The main projects of the year include sponsoring the Valentine dance and presenting the Easter program.

Working on decorations for the Valentine dance...

The Southwest chapter presented the musical part of the program at the District No. 5 rally.

To promote an appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking—this is the main purpose of the F.H.A. This year the club had a full schedule, with a different and original program presented each month. For the Christmas meeting, several senior citizens discussed the differences in the present celebration of Christmas and that of their childhood. Another time the girls enjoyed borsch soup and corn meal pancakes made by Mr. Robinson. The projects for the year included honoring their parents at the annual Mother-Daughter banquet and at "Daddy Date" night.

Art Club

Newest of all the school organizations, the Art Club is composed of twelve talented students who meet daily under the direction of Mrs. Lytton. This club gives potential artists of the school a chance to express themselves. Southwest has seen evidence of their ability throughout the year in attractive bulletin boards and several art exhibits.

Sociology Club

Informal, spirited discussions are the main attraction of the Sociology Club. Current topics of world interest, such as fallout shelters, Communism, and the problems of new republics, as well as problems of the school were discussed this year. Each member has the opportunity to learn from the lively exchange of views and opinions.

Distributive Education is a program for developing future leaders in the fields of marketing and distribution. The Southwest program was begun in 1959. Many awards and honors have been won by members of our student body. Students who participate in the D.E. program divide their day between school and jobs, thus combining classwork with practical experience.

In the fall, the D.E. officers participated in the Leadership Conference at Salisbury.

The club keeps an array of interesting materials in its display case.

Band

One of Southwest's newer organizations, the band is made up of musically talented and able students who work hard to perfect their spirited routines. This year a new feature, marching, was added. Throughout the year, the music of the band added sparkle and fun to football games and pep rallies.

Majorettes

Legs...tasseled boots...twirling batons...pompoms...these belong to our high-stepping majorettes. This year, in their new uniforms, the squad provided entertainment and spice at football half-times with colorful routines and drills.

This year the girls' basketball team came through, as usual, with another very good season. Hard work and long hours of practice put the Trojans in a second-place tie as the season ended. Every game was filled with excitement, tension, and the ever-present will to win. Even though the girls experienced a few heart-breaking defeats, they never quit trying and always displayed the sportsmanship which made their supporters proud.
